Mrs. Jackson Honored by CWF Board

The patio at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rodepouch, 25840 Pennsylvania Ave., was the setting for a lovely luncheon and "hankie" shower honoring Mrs. W. V. Jackson on June 6. The party was given by the CWF board of the First Christian Church as a farewell for Mrs. Jackson, who with her family, is moving to Chowchilla. She was presented with many cards and handkerchiefs.

A short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Esther Walker, CWF president, preceding the luncheon. The group spent several hours visiting and bestowing Mrs. Jackson with good wishes.

Those attending were Mmes. Grace Goad, Anne Thompson, Louise Compton, Jean Richards, Betty Saine, Lura Townsend, Dorothy Smith, Martha Thomsen, Margaret Foster, Grace Connett, Naomi Morgan, Beverly Rich and Irma Morris.

Others were Mmes. Naomi Sippel, Margaret Moon, Julie Lougee, Ethel Moseley, Charlotte Robison, Vida Holloway, Esther Walker.

Children present were Cyn-dy Morgan and Sharon Rich.

Antroms Are Luau Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Anstrom, 241 Via La Circula, entertained friends at an authentic Hawaiian luau at their home on Saturday evening, June 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Anstrom spent three weeks in the islands. Guests enjoyed the travelogue and slide film shown by their hosts after the luau.

Arriving in costume for the party were Messrs. and Mmes. Bob Johnson, Kermit Mikelson, Henry Behrens, Wayne Haley, Ken Byrne, and James Cash.

The hosts received a travel kit for the children from their guests as the Anstrom family plans to leave in the near future for a vacation in Minnesota.

Celebration

Entertaining a table of friends at Marineland Restaurant, where they enjoyed the opening of Meri Ellen & Co. horts in the "Purpouse Room," were Mr. and Mrs. Leo H. Sidelbohm of Torrance, who were celebrating her birthday anniversary.

Guests present included Steve Wilson, Leo R. Sidelbohm Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Wilson of Waveria.

Cotillion Dance Clubs Organizing

Fall registration has begun for the parent-sponsored youth Cotillion clubs in which dance instruction is combined with training in party and public etiquette. Each lesson party is a special social event with refreshments, decorations and party atmosphere.

Each club is limited to 40 boys and 40 girls of the same age group and is supervised by teachers and parents.

The Pacesetter Dance Club, sponsored by Thelma Ishmael and Joan Dermitty, is designed for intermediate school age children and children entering the seventh grade next fall.

Anyone interested may call Mrs. Delbert Gibson, 16807 Falda Ave. or Mrs. William Phillips, 311 S. Harris, Compton.

Birthday Party

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis P. Reitz celebrated his birthday anniversary recently with a festive party at the Polynesian in Waveria, highlighted by a gift of champagne from Harry Baty, who afterwards entertained the group with his Hawaiian music.

New Mothers' Club Will Meet June 16

Pointers on charm and poise will be offered South Bay Mothers of Twins Club when the newly formed group holds its second meeting June 16, 7:30 p.m., at the Plush Horse Restaurant, 1700 Pacific Coast Highway, Hollywood Riviera.

Jeanne Barnhart, owner of a Hollywood Riviera modeling school, will be speaker. A social hour precedes the dinner meeting.

More than 50 women are expected at this second session, which also will find members discussing final details of a family picnic planned July 13 at Ladera Park in Southwest Los Angeles, in conjunction with Westside Mothers of Twins Club.

A total of 51 attended last month's initial session. The club drew interested women from Torrance, San Pedro, Wilmington, Gardena, Palos Verdes, Rolling Hills and the three beach cities.

Five officers of South Bay Club, June 10, attended a Southern California wide Mothers of Twins Clubs workshop in Hollywood. They were Mmes. Walter Withrow, president; John Dieter, second vice president; Victor Heath, treasurer; D. R. White, corresponding secretary; and Roderick Howard, recording secretary.

New chairmen recently named by Mrs. Withrow include Mrs. Gene Alfred, 426 Calle de Felipe, membership; and Mrs. Robert North, 335 Via Linda Vista, bulletin.

Pre-Nuptial Shower For Bride-elect

Miss Darlene Derouin, bride-elect, was complemented at a lovely bridal shower given at the home of Mrs. Laurence Derouin, 2218 W. 229th St. on Tuesday, June 10. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Gilbert Derouin and Mrs. Louis Derouin.

The rooms were decorated with vases of white lilies, clusters of wedding bells and miniature cages of love birds.

Games were played with prizes going to Mrs. Mary Butterfield and Mrs. William Irons.

The bride-elect then opened her gifts and the hostesses served refreshments.

Bringing gifts for the future bride were Mmes. Elza Green, David Pedace, Margaret Neprud, Vaughn Buzen, August Knuutla, Art Ruiz, R. Weely, George Stanford, Dick Joosten, Esther Jansen, Cecil Madrid, Joe Landerville, Anthony Brandelli, Joe Brandelli, Clarence Cole, William Irons, Joe Frisino, Jack McKenney, Martha Madden, Joe Tranpus Sr., W. T. Bersteth, James Rio, E. Rio, Joe Hencil, Frank Kovachevich.

Others were Mmes. Hazle Ward, Bob Hinchberger, Melvin Niesen, Frank Fisher, Roman Sandoval, Joe Jones, Joe Miller, Nick Flamengo, Manuel Andrade, Judy Hicks, Charles Butterfield, and Gary Knuutla.

Also, Misses Loretta Pedace, and Catherine Derouin.

At Graduation

James E. Porter was graduated from Los Angeles State College, Romona campus, in ceremonies at the Hollywood Bowl last Friday evening.

Attending were his wife, Mrs. Rose Mary Porter, his grandfather, Fred Ellis of Torrance, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hinkel also of Torrance.

The graduate, who received his bachelor of science degree, has held a full time job and attended college three nights a week. He played football at LA City College, attended UCLA, and completed his work at LA State.

He and his wife reside in La Mirada.

. . . Ann Landers

ing stamps from your album would probably mean the end of your friendship with his wife.

Call him in a few days and tell him you have a problem. Explain that some of the better stamps which you looked at together, have disappeared. Ask if he knows of a collector who might have duplicates of these stamps—at a reasonable price.

Your telephone call will clue him in pretty cold that you're wise. If he doesn't come through with some replacements (at a reasonable price) he'll at least know that you know.

Dear Ann: The letter signed "New Yorker" shocked me. It's a tragedy when a father can't stand to have his own children at the dinner table because they make noise and spill things.

A wife who tries to keep romance alive by feeding the kids early and getting them out of sight makes a big mistake. Solid marriages aren't built on candle-light and wine with F.M. music in the background. Children who are segregated at mealtime grow up with the uncomfortable feeling that something is wrong with them.

I travel a good bit and evening meals for me are usually $10 feasts at company expense. I'd gladly trade this elegant dining (orchestra included) for a simple meal of meatloaf and cole slaw at home with my wife and two noisy youngsters.

Junior Club Installs New Officer Panel

Torrance Junior Woman's Club held its installation last Wednesday evening at the clubhouse. The ceremony was conducted by Mrs. Paul O'Lenik, president of the Marina district.

Mrs. J. G. Louvier was installed as president of the club. Aiding her in conducting activities of the local club for the coming club year will be Mrs. K. M. Boulter, first vice president; Mrs. Russell M. Clawson, second vice president; Mrs. Frank Neff, Jr., third vice president; Mrs. W. E. Starr, recording secretary; Mrs. Barton A. Tatum, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Lee E. Allen, treasurer, and Mrs. John A. Hall, auditor.

Mrs. Jack Dean will handle the publicity for the club and directors will be Mrs. D. E. Moore, parliamentarian; Mrs. Robert Eipper, junior-senior coordinator, and Mrs. William Sturgis, federation chairman.

Honored guests introduced were the past presidents and the co-ordinators. Mrs. C. Albert Smith gave the response for the past presidents' welcome given by Mrs. K. M. Boulter.

Past presidents attending were Mmes. Ralph Rugraff, Earl Clayton, J. P. Montague, H. T. Jensen, R. C. Morton, Douglas Baldwin, C. Albert Smith, Robert Mowry and James K. Lees.

Mrs. Edna Stearns Dayton was the guest speaker for the evening. She gave a delightful review of the play, "Auntie Name."

Tables were decorated in pink and orchid by Mrs. Frank Neff, Jr., assisted by Mrs. H. Theros and Mrs. E. Starr.

MRS. TOM WILKES, JERRY AND TOM

Food Has to Be Wholsome For Little League Players

What do you feed Little Leaguers who have big time baseball as their goal? We asked a mother of two Little Leaguers, members of the Dodgers ball team in the Torrance Central Little League.

She is Mrs. Tommy Wilkes, 1627 Greenwood. It takes food, lots of it for two growing boys, and their food must have all vitamins and food values that go to make strong bones and muscles.

Mrs. Wilkes contributed her recipe for Kidney Stew which is a favorite with her ball players, Tom and Jerry, and with the man of the house.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Wilkes are natives of Torrance. Mr. Wilkes has been employed by Howard Jewelers for the past 20 years. He is a member of the Torrance Kiwanis club, Masonic Order, Scottish Rite and is a Shriner. The couple are also members of the Los Fiestadores Dance club.

With this Kidney Stew, Mrs. Wilkes suggests a tossed green salad and French bread.

KIDNEY STEW

2 large beef kidneys	4 carrots
2 cups water	4 potatoes
Dash celery salt	Bay leaf
Salt and pepper	Onion or onion salt

Soak kidneys overnight in salt water. Drain and cut into small pieces. Brown cut kidneys in small amount of fat, add two cups hot water and simmer until tender, about 1 hour. Add seasonings, carrots, potatoes and simmer again until carrots and potatoes are tender. Thicken to taste.

Island Film Enjoyed by Alpha Phis

Films of the South Pacific Island trip of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cook thrilled the South Bay Alumnae of Alpha Phi at their June meeting in the home of Mrs. James T. Walsh, Palos Verdes Estates. Mr. and Mrs. Cook, 2309 Chelsea Rd., Palos Verdes Estates, sailed on the Seranger, a freighter of the Westfall Larsen Line in the fall and toured the islands of Tahiti, British Samoa, the Fijis, New Caledonia and American Samoa, returning in time for the Christmas holidays.

The Alpha Phis learned many new and fascinating bits of knowledge including the industries of each island, more of the natives and the foreigners, and the races of people included in these islands—Polynesians, Micronesians, and the Malanesians.

When possible, the Cooks toured each island by taxi and were even entertained royally by a high chief and his native wife one evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook will sail June 27 for South America and return through the Panama Canal. The Norwegian freighter, Thorshall, of the Pacific Island Transportation Co. carrying eight passengers will take them on this 105 day cruise, including a two week stopover in Buenos Aires.

Mrs. C. William Brooks, 23535 Silver Spur, Rolling Hills, will be the hostess for the Alpha Phi bridge June 17. Co-hostess for the affair will be Mrs. George Moll.

Alumnae to Attend Alpha Phi Conclave

"An Investment in Youth," will be the timely theme of the 42nd Biennial Convention of Alpha Phi slated for June 23 to 29 at Pasadena's Huntington-Sheraton Hotel. This theme is also the slogan for the sorority's ambitious new project, the Alpha Phi Foundation, aimed at aiding education.

Mrs. Barry Hillard, Pasadena, convention general chairman, and Mrs. McDonald Scott, Hollywood, assistant chairman, will welcome delegates and guests from 67 active chapters and 179 alumnae chapters and clubs throughout the United States and in Canada and Hawaii. Alpha Phi, one of the oldest college fraternities for women, was founded in 1872 at Syracuse University, New York.

Mrs. Thomas E. White of Manhattan Beach and Mrs. A. Gail Staker of Hawthorne are convention co-chairmen of the South Bay alumnae event which is Hollywood Premiere and will be the climax of Thursday evening. Mrs. Paul Allen Van Amburgh, Redondo Beach is the chapter's official delegate to convention and Mrs. Donald Wilson of Manhattan Beach, its alternate delegate. Other South Bay alumnae planning to attend are: Mmes. Alfred G. Buchanan, John Dozier, Roger Dudley, Richard B. Fyhrle, Robert Griffin, L. R. Littrell, George Moll, David D. Nyberg, Willard A. Renn, Guy Sherod, L. William Springer, James T. Walsh, Guthrie Worth, Park F. Shorthose, and Mrs. Louise Sooy.

Volunteers Dedicate New Porch

Volunteers for Children held a dedication ceremony recently for the new occupational therapy porch at Harbor General hospital which will be used by children patients.

Mrs. Donald Smith, charter member, dedicated the porch in memory of Mrs. Gerald Orzio, who gave unselfish devotion to this cause.

Mrs. Lytle White, president, conducted the meeting. Invocation was given by Rev. J. J. Penner, hospital chaplain. Guest speaker was Mrs. Carolyn Brinn, head of the occupational therapy department.

Special guests included Dr. L. A. West, medical director; Dr. D. T. Groen, assistant medical director; Kenneth Zikes, chief of pediatric service; Mrs. Frances Scott, director of nurses; Dr. Kurt Sherry, Dr. Milt Arnold, Johnny Johnson, Mrs. Boris Woolley, Clyde Baumgardner, Torrance Kiwanis; Russell Miller, Gardena Kiwanis; Clark Swanson, North American Do-Club and Frank Orzio.

Mrs. Walter West was in charge of the dedication assisted by Mrs. Marguerite McAllister, co-ordinator. Mrs. Ralph Galvin was in charge of decorations and Mrs. Arthur Cowie was refreshment chairman.

More Volunteers are needed, announced Mrs. Walter West. Anyone wishing more information on this organization may call, Mrs. Emma A. Geer, Mrs. Floyd Atkins or Mrs. McAllister at the hospital.

Entertains At Coffee

Mrs. John P. Schwartz, retiring president of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, entertained members who had served as chairmen during the past year, at a coffee Monday morning at her home, 1751 Iris.

Pink carnations decorated the buffet table.

Mrs. William Rogers, first vice president, assisted the hostess.

Attending were Mmes. Edwin Hatter, C. L. Briner, Tom G. Hallasey, J. G. Louvier, Robert Waddell, Frank Neff Jr., Jack C. Dean, Eugene Lenk, Richard T. Brundin, and Douglas Baldwin.

Fuchsia Society To Meet June 20

Lomita branch of the California Fuchsia Society will meet Friday evening at 8 in the gardens at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Eipper, 25338 Pennsylvania Ave. Dr. R. Huton will be the speaker and his topic will be "General Gardening." There will be door prizes and refreshments. The public is invited.
